

Point to Point Multimedia Volunteer

Point to Point is a program to help build a community of support for those impacted by cancer.

Position Description: The Multimedia Volunteer position will travel with The Ulman Cancer Fund's Point to Point team from Locust Point Baltimore, MD to the Southernmost Point Key West, FL from October 7-14, 2017. During this time, this individual will need to take professional grade pictures and videos of the events and activities listed below, and create a video of the content captured for future recruitment and advertising purposes by UCF.

Applicants must share a connection to the cancer cause and must be interested in capturing the impact of this experience.

The following expenses will be covered during the length of the trip:

- Lodging
- Meals
- Customized team gear (t-shirts, jacket, duffle bag)
- Transportation from Baltimore to Key West and the return trip back to Baltimore, MD

Responsibilities:

- Gather a large variety of high quality photos and videos during the following activities and events:
  - Running
  - Driving
  - Dedication Circles
  - Rest Stops
  - Community Dinners
  - Cancer Center Visits
  - Sendoff and arrival Celebrations
- Interview individual P2P participants about their experience and what UCF means to them
- Develop a professional video within 6 weeks of returning from the trip

Qualifications:

- Photography
- Videography
- Video Editing

Application process: Applications are now available on ulmanfund.org. Each application must include portfolio examples sent to Aleming@ulmanfund.org.